

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

You are invited to participate in the Annual Meeting of the American Society of Clinical Psychopharmacology (ASCP) to be held at the Loews Miami Beach Hotel on May 30 – June 02, 2023, by submitting a proposal and attending the meeting. The committee welcomes submissions from the U.S. as well as international proposals, and this year the committee strongly encourages the composition of panels and workshops that include women, under-represented minorities and early career scientists and clinicians.

This year's meeting theme is 'The Changing Landscape of Clinical Psychiatry: Novel Therapeutics, Methods, and Assessments'.

The Program Committee for the Annual Meeting is especially interested in proposals on the topics below but welcomes all submissions.

- Behavioral and Physical Health Impact of Life in a High Stress Environment (e.g., War Zone) (Different than PTSD)
- Clinical Informatics in Psychiatry or Mental Health
- COVID-19
- Cutting Edge Treatments
- Dissemination Including Integrating Education to Expand the Knowledge Base
- Emerging Biological Models of Psychiatric Illness
- Global Mental Health and Drug Development
- Integrating Behavioral Therapy Digital Platforms in Psychopharmacology
- Integrating IT Learning Systems to Guide Implementation of New Knowledge in Clinical Practice
- Integrating New and Novel Treatments into Clinical Practice and Education
- Keeping Clinical and Educational Efforts in Pace with Novel and Global Drug Developments
- LGBTQ+
- Matching Effective Treatments to People Who Need Them
- Neuromodulation
- Neuroscience Informed Treatments
- Not Applicable
- Precision in Companion Diagnostics with Biomarkers and Clinical Markers, Including Digital AI Approaches
- Psychedelics
- Psychiatric Disorders Across the Lifespan
- Psychiatry Burnout
- Psychopharmacology and Psychotherapy
- Psychopharmacology Education
- Rural Mental Health
- Systematic Evidence Reviews
- Telepsychiatry
- The Use of Psychedelics and Other Compounds as Adjuvants to Psychotherapy
- Where New Treatments and New Drug Developments Fit into Current Practice

Detailed instructions to submit your abstracts are available at <https://ascpp.org/ascp-meetings/ascp-annual-meeting/> .

2023 Submission Deadlines:

Workshops and Panels Overall (Chair) Proposals:	November 3, 2022
Workshops and Panels Individual Presenter Proposals:	November 10, 2022
New Investigator Awards:	January 30, 2023
Posters:	January 30, 2023
Individual Research Reports:	January 30, 2023
Pharmaceutical Pipeline Presentations:	February 16, 2023
Late-Breaking Posters	March 20, 2023

The ASCP Annual Meeting brings together over 800 representatives from academia, the National Institutes of Health \(NIH\), Food and Drug Administration \(FDA\), European regulatory agencies and industry, including competitively selected New Investigator awardees. In recent years, the ASCP Annual Meeting focus has been expanded to address a number of timely issues relevant to clinical research in psychiatry, including the translation of research into practice, the importance of regulatory issues, and pharmacogenetics and other means to personalizing interventions. A Program Committee for the Annual Meeting chaired by Drs. Susan Kornstein and Mark Rapaport with representation of the sectors that are part of the ASCP community lead the direction of the meeting.

Registration will open in December 2022. Visit <https://ascp.societyconference.com/v2/> for registration and housing.

