Financial Relationships

Definition of Financial Relationship--

Financial relationships are those relationships in which the individual benefits by receiving a salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, consulting fee, honoraria for promotional speakers' bureau, ownership interest (e.g. stocks, stock options or other ownership interest, excluding diversified mutual funds), or other financial benefit. Financial benefits are usually associated with roles such as employment, owner, management position, independent contractor (including contracted research), consulting, speaking and teaching, membership on advisory committees or review panels, board membership, and other activities from which remuneration is received, or expected.

Contracted research includes research funding where the institution gets the grant and manages the fund and the person is the principal or named investigator on the grant.

There is no minimum dollar amount for relationships.

Definition of Ineligible Company--

An ineligible company is any entity producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products or services consumed by, or used on, patients. Providers of clinical service directly to patients are not ineligible companies (unless the provider of clinical service is owned, or controlled, by an ineligible company).

2. Add information about each organization you should disclose.
3. Type your full name in the field provided. For example: Oliver W. Smith.
4. Once all tasks are completed on this page, the buttons on the left will turn green, select "Save and Continue" at the top of the screen.

Final Step: Select the yellow "Submit Abstract" button at the top.

1. You will receive a notification that the submission was submitted successfully.
2. You will receive an email confirmation of the submission.
3. You will be able to edit the submission until the submission period closes.
4. After the deadline has passed, all submissions will be reviewed by the Program Committee. Notifications will be sent by email after the review period.

Rules regarding Conflict of Interest

The Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) requires that The American Society of Clinical Psychopharmacology, Inc., obtain the disclosure from any individual who is in a position to influence or control the content of an accredited activity of any financial interest or other relationship with a commercial interest which is any entity who produces, markets, re-sells or distributes health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients. This includes planners, faculty members, and authors. ACCME defines "relevant" financial relationships as "financial relationships in any amount occurring within the past 24 months that create a conflict of interest".

Although ASCP does not consider that such relevant financial relationships necessarily give rise to bias or unbalance, it is the policy of ASCP that any such relationships be identified to the audience prior to commencement of the program. In addition, it is the policy of ASCP to resolve all conflicts of interest prior to the CME activity as per ACCME guidelines.

Each faculty member or author will be asked to send to the planning committee (depending on the particular meeting) a detailed abstract, and/or the paper to be presented, and/or the slides to be presented. Each abstract, paper, or slide set will be reviewed by the planning committee for content, presentation, and bias, in light of the faculty member's or author's relevant financial relationships. Changes to achieve scientific integrity and lack of bias may be required of the faculty member or author prior to the presentation.

EACH PLANNER, FACULTY MEMBER, AUTHOR MUST COMPLETE AND RETURN A DISCLOSURE STATEMENT. The form is included electronically in the submission online.

PRESENTATION GUIDELINES FOR POSTER SESSIONS AT THE ASCP ANNUAL MEETING

Please prepare your poster to communicate the main points of your work to stimulate discussion with your viewers.

- The maximum area per poster is 4 feet high by 6 feet wide.
- Push pins will be provided to mount your poster to the poster board.
- Do not mount materials on heavy board because it will be difficult to affix the materials to the poster board. Keep presentation as lightweight as possible.
- Poster presentations should be simple and to the point. Use a minimum amount of clear text. Avoid jargon.
- Make sure the poster is easy to read. Use large, BOLD fonts. Text color should highly contrast the background color for legibility for all attendees including those who are colorblind.
 - Tips & tricks for making a colorblind friendly presentation
 - Check for a colorblind friendly color palette
 - Check your color palette to see if it is colorblind friendly
- Remember that illustrations and text will be read by interested scientists from distances of about 3 feet or more. Keep them simple and use large font. Charts, drawings, and illustrations should be heavily drawn.
- Title and author name(s) must be clearly labeled.
- Please indicate the presenting author in the author block (bold, underline, asterisk, etc.).
- A copy of the submitted abstract printed separately from your poster should be available upon request. Please have the copies available posted on your board.
- Include section headings to direct the reader's attention.
- Catch your reader's attention with accent colors for contrast and to highlight main points.
- Use borders or white space to separate sections and increase legibility.
- Use simple figures (graphs, charts, illustrations, and photographs) to illustrate your point. Make sure to include captions.
- Summarize your results/findings with bullet points.
- Posters are grouped by classification for the convenience of those attending the sessions. Each poster board will be numbered. Please do not remove the numbers.
- Disclosures for ALL AUTHORS should be included on the poster.
- ASCP recommends that you add a QR Code to your poster, linking to your contact information. This will allow attendees to contact you for questions or more information, even after the poster session is concluded.

Please email info@ascpp.org or call 615-649-3085 with any questions.

See you at the ASCP Annual Meeting!
