

2017 International Summit on Suicide Research
Symposia Submission FAQs

Q: Is there a required format for my symposia abstract?

A: Symposia abstracts should be in paragraph form with text only. Graphs, charts, and pictures are not accepted. The character limit is 3,200 characters or less not including spaces.

Q: What is the character count for my symposia abstract?

A: Symposia abstracts should be 3,200 characters or less not including spaces.

Q: I am a chair. What will I have to submit?

A: Symposia chairs will need to submit the following:

- The overall session title
- Primary category for submission (selected from a dropdown menu)
- Overall session abstract
- At least two learning objectives for the session (5 objectives maximum)
- Session participants (name and email). Each session should have a chair and 4 speakers (the chair can also be a speaker).
- Financial Disclosures from the last 12 months

Q: I am a symposia participant. What will I have to submit?

A: Symposia participants will need to submit the following:

- Individual talk title
- Individual abstract (in paragraph form, no specific format)
- Co-authors (if applicable). We collect co-author names and affiliations. Please do not include mailing addresses, departments, or locations in the affiliation.
- Financial Disclosures from the last 12 months

Q: When is the deadline to submit a symposia?

A: The deadline to submit a symposia is Tuesday, March 14, 2017.

Q: When will I find out if my symposia was accepted?

A: Symposia notifications should be sent by the first week of May, 2017.

Q: Do I have to register before I can submit?

A: No, but if your symposia is accepted for presentation, you will have to register by August 8, 2017 in order to have your session scheduled.

Q: What day will my presentation be scheduled on?

A: The program will not be finalized until mid-July. In order to create a balanced program, we are not able to accommodate scheduling requests. We ask that all presenters make their travel plans to be available for the entire conference, Sunday-Wednesday.