2021 KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Dr. Bertalan Mesko, MD, PhD

Dr. Bertalan Meskó, MD, PhD believes that healthcare needs a trip to Mars. Why? We need a healthcare system that would keep an astronaut on Mars alive if we want to keep on improving people's lives. Dr. Mesko is The Medical Futurist and the Director of The Medical Futurist Institute analyzing how science fiction technologies can become a reality in medicine and healthcare.

Alton White

Alton Fitzgerald White captivates audiences whenever and wherever he performs. This triple talented singer, actor, and dancer has starred in six smash Broadway hits! He made his Broadway debut starring as John in Miss Saigon with his powerful heart rendering performance of the anthem "Bui Doi" bringing nightly ovations.

Marvelless Mark

Perform like a rock star in your business and in life by learning the innovative success principles of your favorite rock stars along with some serious business content. Business wisdom is Rock N Roll's untold story.

Join Us for These Interactive Sessions

Pre-Conference Sessions: Monday, June 7

Motivational Interviewing

9:00 AM – 1:00 PM Central

Presenter: Bruce Berger, Ph.D.

Motivational Interviewing is an evidence-based, patient-centered approach to improving health behaviors and outcomes. Dr. Bruce Berger will introduce you to a sense-making approach to MI, review case examples, and engage you in activities to hone your communication skills.

Orchestrating Change

2:00 PM – 4:30 PM Central

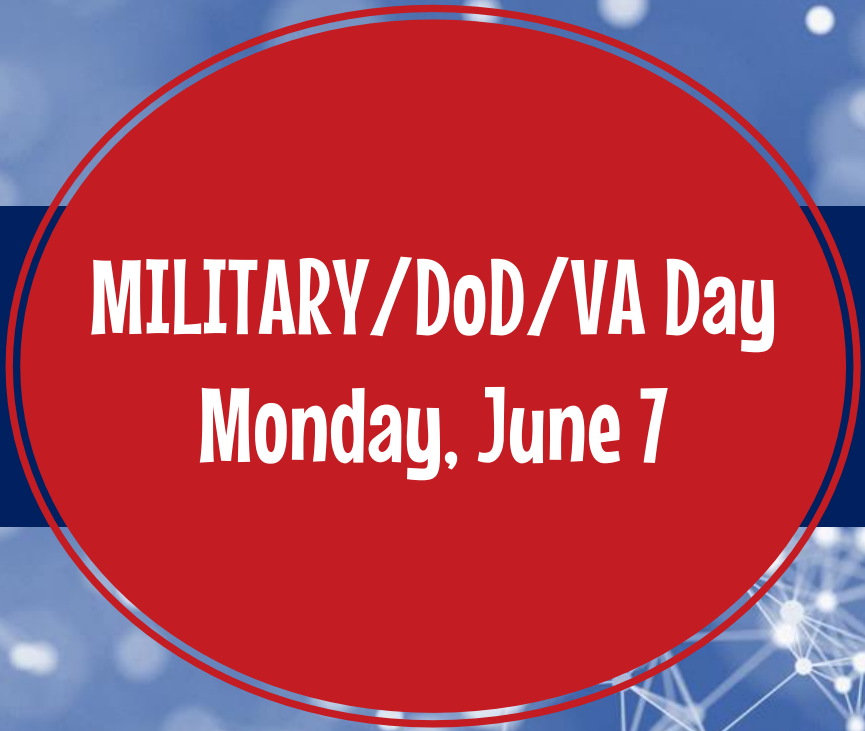

People living with mental illness combat stigma, fear, and ignorance almost every day and most of their lives. This session includes a documentary film about the world's only orchestra for people living with mental illness, followed by a live discussion with some of the orchestra members. You are sure to come away with new awareness about people living with mental illness and perhaps new courage to help fight stigma.

Networking Roundtables

Make the most of your virtual experience with engaging and interactive sessions designed to help you make connections, expand your learning, share best practices, and have some fun!

- Four scheduled networking roundtable sessions that will focus on Chapter leadership roles, continued conversations with speakers, and expanded education around our track topics and member segments.
- Mixers, receptions, networking and more jam-packed with fun, intrigue, and laughs with friends new and old!
