

Advancing Health Equity Addiction Research in Challenging Times

Conference sponsored by the Rutgers Resilience Collective Join us for an engaging discussion about the future of addiction research

May 22, 2026 · 11–3:30 pm
Rutgers Institute for Health 112 Paterson St, New Brunswick

Apply to share your work!

Accepting poster submissions through Monday, March 2nd

Submit an Abstract

This conference is FREE to attend. Lunch will be provided for attendees who register by April 15. Students and early-stage investigators may apply for travel awards and data blitz talks.

For more information, visit our events page or contact Carolyn Sartor at csartor@ifh.rutgers.edu.

Keynote Speaker:
Sarah Pedersen, PhD

“For the Communities Counting on Us: Addiction Research Moves Forward”

Click Here to Register

or paste this link into your browser: <https://tinyurl.com/resiliencecollective2026>

Registration Deadline: April 15, 2026

RUTGERS–NEW BRUNSWICK Center of Alcohol and Substance Use Studies
Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology

Yale

The City College of New York